

DKA CHILDREN'S LITERATURE FESTIVAL DRAWING COMPETITION

SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2014

DKA have been designing schools for over 21 years and we actively encourage creativity to produce the most inspiring and engaging environments for children to learn in. We understand that children are the major stakeholders in many of the school environments that we create which is why we're giving local school children in and around Bath the chance to share their dreams and visions of the perfect school. We don't want to limit any creativity or inspiration by setting lots of rules – the more imaginative the designs the better.

However, some general guidelines for the competition are listed below:

Who can participate in the competition?

Children below 16 attending an educational facility in Bath and the surrounding area.

A prize will be presented to each of 3 age groups as follows:

Pre-school: Ages 2-5 years

Primary school: Ages 6-11 years

Secondary school: Ages 12 – 16 years

A selection of entries will be exhibited at the Bath Central Library for a week from 3rd November. This exhibition will be open to the public and entry will be free of charge. The winning entry in each age category will also be published in the Bath Chronicle.

Technical requirements:

- Working technique must be original free hand drawing (no traced drawings)
- Materials: Full colour hand drawing/black and white drawing/collage (pencil, pen, watercolour, crayon, collage materials, chalk, all types of paint etc)
- Size: Minimum A4; maximum A3

Formal requirements:

Participants who wish to enter the competition can only submit one copy of their personally created drawing. The deadline for entries is 17th October 2014.

- All participants are required to fill in the application form
- The application form must be printed and signed by a duly authorised supervisor of the participant (parent or legal guardian) which will constitute consent by an adult for participation in the competition as well as acceptance of terms and conditions

A selection of entries will be presented at an exhibition at Bath Central Library and other locations in and around Bath, including DKA's studio. They will be published on the official website of DKA, our social network pages and on DKA marketing material and other publications.

The artwork will be judged on the following criteria:

- Creativity
- Originality
- Design

Prize:

A set of art supplies for a class of 30 children will be awarded to the winner of each age category.

Where to send the entries:

Please send original drawings and artwork with the completed application form to Sarah Sempala-Ntege, DKA, The Malt House, 17-20 Sydney Buildings, Bath BA2 6BZ. If you wish your art work to be returned, please enclose a stamped addressed envelope.
